

English:

Reference_Theoretical_Basis_Second_Edition_EN_2026-01-21

1. Being as the Center of Interpretation: Being is a potential formed and actualized through history.
2. The Threshold of Liberation: Realizing the "Minimum Human Dignity" is the condition to neutralize natural necessity.
3. Ontological Space: A civilizational achievement arising from neutralizing necessity, allowing for reflection and consciousness.
4. Laws of Liberation and Natural Reversal: A dialectic between creative ascent and harsh corrective contraction.
5. The Creator as Path-Revealer: The individual who returns from solitude not to rule, but to dismantle the "herd" and reveal the path of being.
6. The Civilizational Cycle: A spiral motion of vertical and horizontal integration.
7. Self-Correction Principle: A living framework committed to intellectual honesty and constant revision.

English (Summary)

1. Being: A potential actualized in history.
2. Threshold: Minimum dignity to neutralize necessity.
3. Space: Consciousness as a civilizational achievement.
4. Laws: Dynamics of creative liberation and corrective reversal.
5. Creator: A path-revealer, not a ruler.
6. Cycle: A spiral movement of human meaning.
7. Integrity: Constant self-correction

#PhilosophicalCivilization
x.com/nabil731
facebook.com/PhiloCiv
<http://bit.ly/4hFJgdU>